Thermex integro 51 II 80 cm with motor is a minimalist built-in extractor hood which is hidden in the upper cupboard, the built-in control makes it easy to use the extractor. The simple assembly concept makes it possible to replace the existing extractor hood without replacing the upper cabinet.

Thermex Integro 51 II is an innovation that fits all standard 60, 80 or 90 cm upper cupboards, it basically just replaces the bottom of the cupboard. You make use of the maximum collection surface and can also fold out the glass screen if necessary. Integro 51 II is super efficient and has a boost function. The edges of the upper cabinet are well protected by the folds of the hood. Together with Thermex Integro, this is a slightly underrated solution that is very simple to install. The built-in motor can move up to 602 m³/h
